ON OCTOBER 30, students representing the Stenography and Related I and II classes at ACHS visited Mr. Pete McCraw and Mrs. Harriet Charlton at Babcock Manor. The Future Business Leaders of America has chosen the adoption of Mr. McCraw and Mrs. Charlton as its Gramps and Granny for the year. Members of the FBLA will visit Gramps and Granny for Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter and on their birthdays. Mrs. Charlton worked for 20 years in Washington, D.C., in a bank and taught school in Appomattox County for two years. Mr. McCraw is a retired railroad worker and loves chewing tobacco.

4-H Club News

By RICHARD GALLIER

Mrs. Walton's 4-H Club met on Wednesday. Our president, Karen Lewis, called the meeting to order. Cheryl Litchford led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and Dawn Leonard led us in the 4-H Pledge. Then the recreation leaders, April Moore, Dawn Leonard and L. C. Mabry, led the game, "Heads up, 7-up," and the song "The 4-H Spirit."

The minutes were read by Regina Christian. New business -Share-the-Fun is in November. We picked 4-H project books. The program for this month was camp slides. It was presented by Mr. Sweet.

Karen Lewis adjourned the meeting.

Mr. Seymour's 4-H Club

By JEFF BATES

Mr. Seymour's 4-H Club met on Monday, October 20, 1980. The meeting was called to order by the president.

Genessa Hix and Roger Bates led us in the Pledge to the American Flag and the 4-H Pledge. Then the recreation leaders led us in some games.

Kelly Webber, secretary, read the minutes of our last meeting. We talked about project books and Share-the-Fun which will be at the end of November. Mr. Sweet explained the project books to us and then we chose which projects we wanted. We also saw some slides.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Mrs. Dickerson's 4-H Club

By ARLINDA WESLEY

We got our project books. Half of the class got them. Our first 4-H meeting was on September 21, 1980. This is our third 4-H meeting, November 7, 1980. Our officers are: president - Shawn Walker, vice-president - Lloyd Wesley, Secretary - Roger Jackson, recreation leaders - Leroy Woolridge, Dianne Hamlin, and Marie Freeman.

MIKE JACKSON (left) was the eighth-grade winner and Donald Scruggs was the seventh-grade winner in an outing sponsored by the Appomattox Junior Chapter of FFA Oct. 10.

FFA holds outing

Approximately 75 members and guest of the Appomattox Junior Chapter FFA attended an outing held Oct. 10 at the Appomattox Middle School.

The outing started with nine competitive events, including arm wrestling, tug-o-war, 50-yard dash, pacing, softball throw, hand-sawing, bucksawing, football throw, and nail driving. Each person could sign up for five events.

The person earning the most number of points in their five events was given a 3/8-inch electric drill. The eighth-grade winner was Mike Jackson, and the seventh-grade winner was David Scruggs.

After the events a supper was served in the school cafeteria. The main course of the meal was a Brunswick Stew, made by two of the cafeteria members in the Community Cannery.

Also served were potato chips, brownies and soft drinks.

Volunteers meet

Parent Volunteers at Appomattox Elementary School met October 27, for an inservice meeting designed to acquaint volunteers with office routine and particular instructional procedures.

Mrs. Sarah Elliott, school secretary, led the discussion on routine office procedures explaining to parents how they could assist in the office. Mrs. Barbara Waddell, assistant principal, conducted a reading lesson using teacher manuals, student textbooks and other reading materials to explain the various aspects of the reading program. The operation of a filmstrip projector for classroom use was demonstrated by Miss Margaret Nimmo, librarian.

Volunteers selected the time and the day of the week they would like to assist in classrooms in the school. A desire to continue inservice for volunteers was expressed by those attending.

The interest and cooperation Parent Volunteers show in the school is invaluable, and through their generous efforts the benefactors will be the students.

By DAVID JONES

Miss Johnson's fifth grade 4-H Club met on October 15, 1980. Our president, Johnny White, called the meeting to order. Tammy Marsh led us in saying the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and Wilbert Steeples, vice-president, led us in the 4-H Pledge. Then the recreation leaders, Sonia Jackson and Tommy Franklin led the games "Black Magic" and "Bicycle Race." The minutes were read and approved by our secretary, Jennifer Stephens. We chose 4-H projects for the year and Miss Chilton showed a slide presentation of last years Share-the-Fun. Sonia Grimm and William Mayberry turned in their completed projects from last year.

APPROXIMATELY 30 parents attended a meeting concerning the Gifted and Talented Program at AMS. At the meeting held on November 5, 1980, at 2:00 p.m., Mrs. Hezteine R. Foster, principal, gave a brief overview of the program. Mrs. Susan Williams, Mrs. Teresa Crawford, and Miss Beth Lawson, teachers working with the Gifted and Talented students as an extension of the regular classroom instruction, gave the objectives and activities of the program. These teachers work closely with the classroom teachers to coordinate the instructional program for the gifted and talented students. The program is off to a good start with students working in various interest areas.
